

Accessibility Statement for Same Difference

At Same Difference, I am committed to ensuring that my digital spaces are accessible, inclusive, and usable by all people, regardless of ability or technology.

I believe accessibility is a core part of equity, equality, diversity, and inclusion — and that everyone deserves equal access to information, opportunities, and support.

My Commitment

I am actively working to improve the accessibility of SameDifference.org.uk to ensure it aligns with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, at Level AA. These standards are internationally recognised and help ensure websites are usable for people with a wide range of needs, including visual, hearing, motor, and cognitive disabilities.

Known Limitations

I am aware that some parts of my website may not yet fully meet accessibility standards. These may include:

- - Limited colour contrast on some pages
- - Lack of alternative text on certain decorative images
- - Mobile responsiveness of video content

I am currently reviewing these areas and working to improve them as part of my ongoing development roadmap.
